At Lima, Wednesday, John R. Gentry in presence of a crowd estimated to be from 25,000 to 30,000 people, broke the world's pacing record for a half-mile track; the race being with Joe Patchen for a purse of $2500. Both horses were in the finest possible condition. The time for the first heat was 2.04 1/2, the second 2.00 1/2. These horses were brought to Lima by Chas. Janneman, a wealthy horse man of that city, who took responsibility for the purse. Had it been a rainy day Mr. Janneman would have been the loser, but as it was probably $10,000 was cleared above expenses.
